ANNEDY ASSASSINATION

Probe Centers on Cubans

By GENE ROBERTS

New York Times News Service
NEW ORLEANS La. — The last week of former airport David William Ferrie Parish Dist. Atty.
Garrison, who says he has led a conspiracy culminated the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, was an action centered almost y on Cuban refugees.

was believed here that he would be a Cuban refugee. He was a policy maker for the Garrison and Oswald case.

sharply attacked by Carlos Bringuier, a leader among anti-Castro Cubans in New Orleans who once engaged in a radio debate with Lee Harvey Oswald.

Bringuier said the district attorney has "hurt all of the Cuban community."

Many of Garrison's clues were developed by the Warren Commission and the Federal Bureau of Investigation and later rejected by them on grounds that they were either false clues or were unsupported by evidence.

One of the clues is the alleged anti-Castro sentiment of Ferrie, 42, who was found dead in bed last week soon after protesting Garrison's investigation. Garrison believes there was a link between him, Oswald and anti-Castro Cubans.

graph of Warren Commission

Garrison, who was man Garrison's investigators believe to be a Cuban.

The fact that Oswald was distributing pro-Castro, rather than anti-Castro, literature has not dissuaded Garrison from his theory that Oswald was part of an anti-Castro plot.

The district attorney believes, according to one of his investigators, that Oswald might have distributed the literature in an effort to win the confidence of the Cuban government and gain permission to "enter that country, where he would have become the "trigger man" in a plot to assassinate Castro.

However, when Oswald was denied permission to enter Cuba, the theory continues, the anti-Castro "conspirators" decided next to kill him. The assassination of Kennedy was a way of punishing him for his failure to follow the Bay of Pigs invasion plan.

after Oswald was shot, the "trigger" had flown to Dallas to Aracacha, reportedly a former Cuban exiles in that city.

The investigators met Aracacha Dallas police station but when he that any questioning be done in ence of Dallas detectives, failed him, Garrison reportedly told Aracacha could not be reached for Sunday night.

Hugh Aynesworth of Newsweek he quoted Aracacha as having that Garrison's investigators had "bounced him" and had asked him company them back to New Orleans.

"I have nothing to tell them," was quoted as saying. "I know nothing what's going on."

ARACACHA SAID HE left New Orleans 1961 and hadn't had much contact anyone there until he phoned from week, Aynesworth said.

Aracacha seemed "very surprisanybody was interested in him. he'll tell anybody anything but I know anything," Aynesworth said.

The Newsweek staffer said Aracacha him Garrison got his name from posed friend in New Orleans named inquirer, whom Aracacha had told.

"He said, 'Look, doesn't Garrison that he's hurting the country. He going to arrest him or have him hardly fair to let him stay in Cuba.'"

The New Orleans newspaper identified Alexander as Aracacha representative.

"I can't, I don't, I wouldn't him," Alexander said, "Just because, we would advise him his rights."

Cuban Denies Knowledge of Assassination

By DAVID MORGAN

The New Orleans district attorney's office has been trying to get a Cuban refugee now living in Dallas to travel to New Orleans for questioning in connection with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.
The Dallas News learned Sunday.

Assistant Dist. Atty. Bill Alexander of Dallas said Sergio Aracacha had called the "office sometime last week and related that he had been asked to go to New Orleans on Wednesday. He wanted to know if he had to leave his job and pay his own expenses down there without a subpoena or without knowing what kind of deal he was going through on."

Alexander said he advised Aracacha of his rights — "that he had the right to refuse to go to New Orleans."
